ON THE COVER: COBY MITCHELL

photography by Media Gio

Our cover model, Coby Mitchell, is poised and ready to make his mark on the world of gay porn. Currently living in Las Vegas and represented by FabScout Entertainment, Coby has just completed his first film for none other than Chi Chi LaRue. Coby bottoms in his first film for Tommy Blade and Chi Chi tells us that the working title for the movie is "Unknown," which is kind of ironic since this was Coby's debut performance. However, we at JUB are sure that Coby Mitchell will no longer be "unknown" after this issue. You saw him here first! For more of Coby, visit JustUsBoys.com/mag/65

How many hats do you wear?

Is a condom one of them?

Proponents of barebacking and proponents of safer sex have had their lines drawn in the sand for years. Serious attempts at dialog are few; mostly there is sniping and name-calling.

True, it is possible for monogamous partners to have "unsafe sex" that is safe if neither have STDs, but how far should you go to be sure your partner really is clean and only with you? Does the depiction of condom-free sex on adult websites and DVDs encourage viewers to do likewise, without full knowledge of whether they or their partners carry any STDs?

- Have you been tested? Should you be?
- Can casual or anonymous sex still be spontaneous and fun?
- If you are HIV-positive, does safe sex no longer matter?
- What about other STDs that are immune to penicillin and other modern drugs?
- Why are 14- to 24-year-olds the group where new HIV infections are making the biggest headway?

In this issue, we'll point you to several online resources where you can get more information to manage and maximize your sexual health — and fun.

Mac Quintero: Built to last

Set up a camera and this guy just comes alive. "I'm most comfortable when I'm exposed," admits Mac as he folds his shirt up and lays it aside. Hey, Mac, it's not time to take your clothes off yet!

Mac's so confident because his machine is always in tiptop shape. "I love being naked at the gym and I love the stares," he confides. "I just wish more guys would follow through because I'm horny 24/7."

Well, Men Magazine is never shy. And in their May issue, Mac is most assuredly not either. "I'm pretty much a total exhibitionist," the stud admits, smiling as he strips off his pants. Can you handle this big Mac attack?

◀ A Message from Chi Chi La Rue

"Condom Crusader" Chi Chi LaRue has advocated safer sex and condom use for two decades. In fact, the porn diva has never held any other opinion. As early as 1991, LaRue insisted that the studios that employed him use condoms in every scene —before this became the industry norm. In 2006, LaRue left Vivid Entertainment Group when the company altered it's policy to condoms-optional.

"If everyone practiced the safer sex guidelines used on my set, HIV and other STD's would all be on the decline," says LaRue. "My anti barebacking policy has never been a secret. I hate that it goes on in any way in this industry and I speak out against it every chance I get, which is often! The message is simple: WRAP IT UP!"

In 1995, Chi Chi LaRue and AIDS Project Los Angeles launched a "Safe Sex Is Hot Sex" campaign in sex clubs and bath houses. In 2002, APLA, Channel 1 Releasing, and Chi Chi LaRue launched the AIDS awareness "Wrap It Up" campaign.

Now Chi Chi fires another shot across the bow of barebacking proponents with his new website, SafeSexIsHotSex.com. There you can read Chi Chi's message, read responses from readers and view a 4 ½-minute video.

Aaron James Exposing His True Life

Aaron James (AJ) is about to surpass the proverbial "15 minutes of fame" sought after by many models entering the world of adult entertainment. At 23 years of age with piercing blue eyes and a toned physique, James is ready to leap into the homes of millions of people in his mainstream TV debut.

James jumped at the chance to be featured in the MTV documentary series TRUE LIFE when he was contacted by show producers this past year. "They contacted me on their own and wanted to know if I would be interested in being in a TRUE LIFE episode that focuses on life in the adult entertainment industry." The segment, entitled "I Work in the Sex Industry," is expected to air in March 2008, according to the show's producers.

When asked what he hopes people will take away from his appearance on TRUE LIFE, James stated, "I was happy that I got a chance to shed a positive spin on working in the adult entertainment industry, and I really enjoyed doing it. I will make my ultimate decision as to whether it was a good move or a bad move when the show airs in March."

James was followed around by a camera crew for a period of three months. "The camera would follow me around every day for up to two weeks at a time before I would get a couple days break and then the cameras would start rolling again. They pretty much captured everything that was going on with me over a three month period of time."

And, what a busy period of time that was for AJ. Just prior to the MTV deal, he inked an exclusive one year deal with the popular internet site CollegDudes247.com to appear as an exclusive model on the site. "I love the guys over at College Dudes. They are really nice people, very respectful and a great company to work for."

His contract with College Dudes 247 allowed him to pursue work with studios that produce DVD movies which led to AJ getting cast in ON FIRE for Jet Set Men. Jan Milstead, of Jet Set Men said, "He's a class act who performs like a champ. He also symbolizes the porn industry's continued crossover appeal to a younger generation." Shortly after filming wrapped, he was offered an exclusive contract with Jet Set Men making him one of the industries first dual exclusives.

When asked what it's like being a dual exclusive, AJ stated, "Each studio has its benefits and I really like working for both of them. Both companies are working well together which makes it good for me." Aaron Sherman of College Dudes 247 confirmed this statement by saying "I think that having AJ as a dual exclusive is great for everyone involved. It gives AJ a broader reach to the consumer by being involved in both genres of gay porn."

James currently has several scenes with College Dudes 247 and says, "I shoot with them once a month and my scenes keep getting hotter."

He is featured as a dynamic top and Aaron Sherman says, "He is an amazing performer and one of the most popular guys on our site. We knew after his initial solo that he was going to be a stand out."

Outside of his work in the porn industry, James is an avid sports fan. "I really like football and played in high school. I also like watching most other sports." He has also become very active in pursuing Human Rights initiatives. "I really like being able to have a positive impact on peoples lives and I am actively pursuing opportunities to work within various types of Human Rights initiatives."

As a self proclaimed "straight" man, you might think he would keep his work a secret from friends and family. "I have been completely open and honest with my friends and family about my work and there have been no negatives. Although I say I am straight, I really don't think there's a name for what I truly am. Besides, I find labels pointless." When asked what his biggest turn on is, he said, "I am really turned on by people that are sexually open minded."

Most fans have seen James as a top on College Dudes 247, but he bottoms for the first time in Jet Set Men's ON FIRE. His ability to be versatile and not hung up on labels is just another example of what makes Aaron James so special.

He has recently completed several more scenes for College Dudes 247 and another film for Jet Set Men entitled HOLLYWOOD SEX CLUB. He loves to hear from his fans. For more pics and fan contact information, visit Aaron James on the web:

◀ Sister Zsa Zsa's Epistle to the Gay Porn Industry

Barebacking in gay porn is the elephant in the room, but Mark Kliem is determined to talk about it. Kliem is the man behind LavenderLounge.com and he has been involved in gay porn for many years.

Writing as his alter-ego, Sister Zsa Zsa of the sisters of Perpetual Indulgence, Kliem prepared and distributed a flyer at the GayVN Webmaster Retreat last October, on the subject of barebacking. Kliem's "Epistle to the Porn Industry" did not draw another line in the sand, but it attempted to defuse the barebacking issue by inviting dialog.

Kliem writes, "I prefer to envision a day when STDs are curable, all performers working in the gay adult industry are completely disease-free, and condoms are no longer an issue. We've gotten so accustomed to the idea that the crisis is forever, we've lost hope of even trying to end it. I am posing this idea as a challenge and a goal to the gay adult industry for everyone's long-term success and good karma."

To help start the conversation, Kliem penned the 10 Barebacking Acceptable Practices. Contrary to what such a list sounds like, it's a manifesto for sane and sensible behavior that ends name-calling and finger-pointing.

You can read Sister Zsa Zsa's complete epistle at www.LavenderLounge.com/blog. Type "epistle" in the search box.

THE Woman BEHIND

Man!

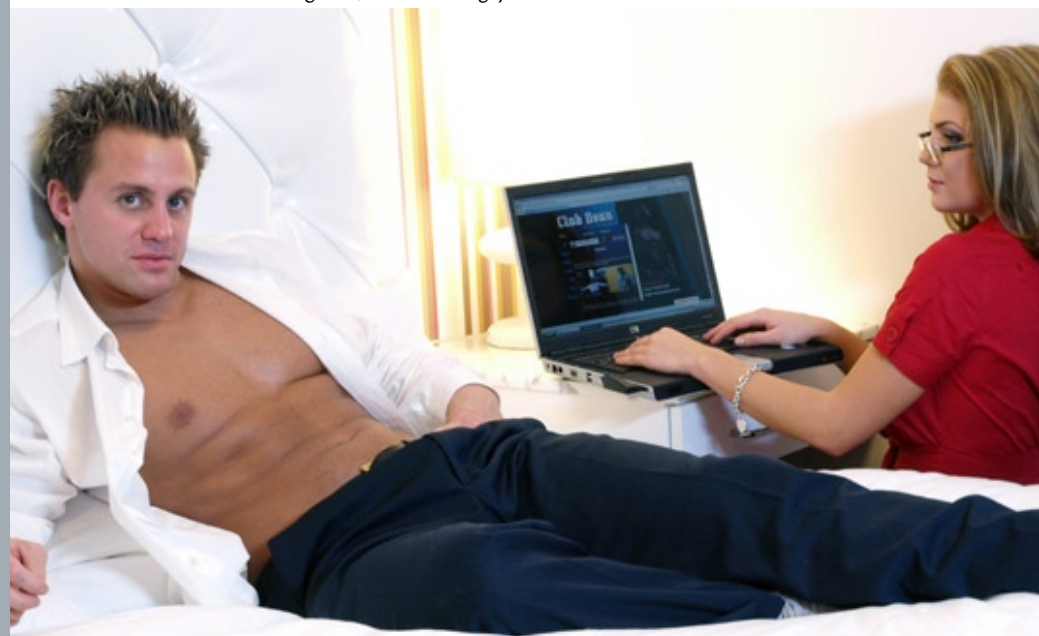

photography by Media Gio

It is not often that one gets the opportunity to truly look at the personal lives of porn stars, and it is even rarer to actually be given access to capture their story on film for the whole world to see! Well, JUB was given just that opportunity during the annual AVN/GAYVN Convention held in Las Vegas.

We sat down with Dean Coxx (clubdean.com) and his gorgeous fiancée Courtney for a behind the scenes look at their life together, his role as a gay Courtney and I truly believe that having the freedom to express oneself sexually is a gift, and we are truly lucky to have found each other!" Courtney also works as a dancer for bachelor parties in Las Vegas, and Dean is often by her side as her Bouncer. "We both look out for each other's best interests and although working together can be tough at times, we have learned how to separate our work from our personal time", stated Dean.

porn star, escorting and more. They say that "Behind every great man, is a great woman," and that saying could not be more true for Dean. Courtney is not only the love of his life, but she also helps manage his business affairs by assisting with his website, filming his scenes, filtering his fan mail, and she's even the one who encouraged him to become an escort for men. That is one open minded woman! Dean is quick to point out that "Without her, there would be no ClubDean.com."

Open and honest communication is the key to their success, and they share everything with each other... that means no secrets of any kind. Courtney says that when trying to explain to friends what Dean does for a living it is just easier to say he is bi-sexual. However, Dean is quick to point out that he prefers the term "sexual", and he is not as hung up on labels as he was when he was a young man growing up in Philadelphia. "In this business, I have met some of the greatest people, and I am forever grateful to all of the fans that I have out there.

Dean took the gay porn world by storm in 2003 when he began appearing on camera with the popular website and video company Straight College Men. In 2006, he was recognized for his starring role in Straight College Men 23, which won the Best Amateur Video Award at the GAYVN Awards. Shortly thereafter, he decided to venture out and start his own website. "I felt it was time for me to move out on my own, and Courtney really encouraged me to start my own site. There were many changes happening at the other site. Some were good and others were bad. We were just not seeing eye to eye anymore, and Courtney and I felt it would be better for me to start a site that fit my needs and the needs of my fans. Thankfully, all my fans have been very supportive and that made the change a lot easier for me."

Bill Gardner,, HDK Founder

Hot Desert Knights now to require HIV/STD testing

On February 7, 2008, bareback studio Hot Desert Knights made the announcement that effective immediately, it will require HIV and STD testing of models. Testing will be provided by Adult Industry Medical Healthcare (AIM).

In the past, most U.S. bareback companies paired positive-with-positive or negative-with-negative performers. Models declared their serostatus without providing evidence.

In a statement given to XBIZ magazine, HDK founder Bill Gardner said, "I think the responsible thing for the entire gay industry to do is to test and to not ever discriminate against a model because of his status."

Gardner said his decision was influenced by the increasing number of bareback studios outside the U.S. that have limited access to health resources and do not provide advice and counseling to their models, many of whom are younger (18-23) than the average HDK model.

To work for Hot Desert Knights, models must agree to be tested by AIM for HIV/AIDS, gonorrhea, syphilis, chlamydia and hepatitis A, B and C. Test results will be disclosed only to the studio, the model and the model's scene partner(s).

Dr. Sharon Mitchell, founder of AIM and a former adult film performer, said she was "extremely proud of HDK ... for taking this ground breaking step."

Gardner's move should be welcomed as an olive branch in the condom-bareback divide in the gay adult industry.

REAL COUPLE:

Ricco and Adam

THEY SAY IT IS "Hot in Vegas" and with our real couple residing in "Sin City" this statement couldn't be truer. Ricco and Adam are perhaps two of the hottest Latin men we have featured on our pages. The two met at a local nightclub and from the moment their eyes met the sparks began to fly. Ricco said that he found Adam standing alone at the bar. "I was standing in the other corner looking at him, and he was acting shy. That was a turn on for me, and I just had to approach him." Adam said that after meeting Ricco, "I really liked how many things we had in common with each other, and that is what attracted me to him."

Ricco is 26 and originally from Brazil. Adam is 24 and hails from Mexico. Both men have been blessed below the belt. Ricco sports an impressive 10.5" uncut tool and Adam sports close to a 9" beer-can-thick uncut tool. The two work together as male escorts and can be found on RentBoy.com under the heading "Ricco n Adam." As male escorts, they only work together and find that most clients prefer to hire them to put on a live voyeuristic show for their pleasure. "I was already working as an escort when I met Adam. When I knew our relationship was getting serious, I had to be honest with him and let him know what I was doing. He was interested in this work as well, and we then decided to do this work together as a couple. We only work together as a couple now and do not do any one-on-one bookings for clients. We were surprised how many people would be interested in hiring us together and how many people out there are voyeurs who find pleasure in watching the two of us together."

When asked if there is a particular client experience that stands out as a favorite, they remarked, "We approach every client as we do our real jobs... with passion. We are both Latin and therefore we have a lot of passion between us to share with each other, and we find it exciting and fun to share that with other people as well. Every time for us is exciting because each client is different and for us we have had great experiences every time and met some amazing people in this line of work."

Having been together for six months they both recognize trust and communication are the keys to their success as a couple. Adam pointed out that "as long as you have love and trust with each other, it does not matter if you are gay or straight because love is what brings two people together. Even though we are gay men and cannot have children on our own, we hope that in the future our financial situation will allow us to adopt and raise children together." Being from the Latino culture, neither has come out openly to his family. They're both hopeful that one day their own families, as well as, the overall Latino culture in North America will become more accepting of the gay community. In the meantime, they point out that "as long as we have self acceptance and love in our hearts for each other that is enough for us."

Ricco was featured as a 2005 centerfold in Latin Inches Magazine and they have both appeared together, on camera, for LatinBoys.com. JUB is thrilled to present you with an exclusive hardcore video, which includes an in depth interview into their life as a couple, their work as escorts, and concludes with a sensual sex scene that is so hot it steamed up our cameras!

◀ Medication resistant STDs on the rise

A new sexual health threat looms on the horizon in the form of STDs that have developed resistance to treatment. Where you live, how you obtain and pay for treatment, and what the STD is, are factors to consider when deciding whether to use condoms.

Antibiotic-resistant gonorrhea (ARG) resists penicillin, tetracycline, spectinomycin and fluoroquinolones; over 40% of cases show resistance to ciprofloxacin and ofloxacin.

Drug resistance in Staphylococcus aureus (staph) infections, sometimes called MRSA (pronounced "mersa") is not new. What's new is the fact more and more cases of sexual transmission are being reported.

Drug-resistant strains of HIV have been recorded since about 2001, and drug-resistant syphilis is spreading. Penicillin-resistant syphilis has been known since the Vietnam era, but new cases show resistance to azithromycin as well. Azithromycin-resistant cases in San Francisco jumped from 4 percent in 2002 to 37 percent in 2003, with the increase primarily in gay and bisexual men.

Hepatitis B is another disease that shows resistance to drugs that formerly controlled it.

In all cases, drug resistance is more worrisome in people with compromised immune systems, especially patients with HIV.

The good news for sexually active men is that the use of condoms — especially if you don't know your STD status or that of your partner — is a simple and effective way to avoid transmitting disease.

BRANDON: How perfect is this? We get to talk about escorting. I feel like I might be able to know what I am talking about for once.

Angel: I know and all those people who wish that for once I would just shut up are finally going to get their wish! But maybe I can just steer the conversation along and ask the questions that everybody is dying to know. So first of all, what exactly IS escorting?

Brandon: Escorting to me is getting paid for my time. I "escort," that is, accompany, gentlemen for periods that are generally in hourly time slots. When I say, "It's about time." I mean it. It's all about time.

Angel: How did you find out about this particular profession, and what made you want to pursue it for yourself?

Brandon: Seriously, if most people fell into their career, I tripped and went head first. I started doing porn way back when and then I kept getting these requests to spend time with guys. At first, I was like, no way. However, after a few offers with some serious cash, I just couldn't pass it up. After the first few nerve wracking times, it got easier and I got comfortable with the situation. It's like hooking up for the first time or meeting someone new, the thrill excites me and the cash motivates me.

Angel: Yes I can see how cash can be a motivating factor in any profession. How does one set their hourly rate for this type of work?

Brandon: I take a look on some of the leading sites: www.rentboy.com, www.men4rentnow.com and several others and see what other escorts are charging. You can see that there is a "Standard" and then I price myself a little higher, because I think my time and what we can do during it is worth more than a "standard." Other times, like at the end of the month, when bills are due, I lower my rate and spend more time with people. Rates are tricky. I definitely don't charge for anything but my time. When I was living in New Orleans and spending lots of time with guys it was so hard to say no to that much money. Even if I was tired or was heading to my friends house, I would rearrange things to spend time with people.

Angel: Is there a certain age range that you should be in to be an escort?

Brandon: Hell no. Knowing what I do now and having been an escort, hired escorts and now helping to run one of the biggest escort websites, there is something for everyone. Part of the beauty about hiring an escort is you can get whatever you want, when you want it, and then be done with it. If you want an "experienced" and probably "older" guy to try something with that you saw in a movie, you can call an older escort or one with a track record. The next night, if you want to spend time with a young, pretty guy, you can do that too.

Angel: Now, it seems too good to be true and just like a fabulous way to support yourself. BUT you know as well as I do that EVERYTHING has its price. What are some of the things that you personally have felt like you have given up, to pursue this occupation?

Brandon: You are right, now more than ever; I see that the adage I so often use at rentboy.com is right. "Money can't buy you love, but everything else is negotiable."

Angel: What's been the cost of this illustrious lifestyle?

For one, my personal ideas of sex and satisfaction are fucked up. I have a hard time getting intimate with my boyfriend. I got so tied up in sex as an obligation that I made up for myself, that when I really wanted to get intimate, I felt like I was missing something or it was not as lucrative.

Another, is that I also think I have lost the value of a dollar. I mean, when you make $8.00 an hour, you tend to value the things that you buy more because you had to work harder to get it. When you make $300.00 an hour, things come easier. On the same token, I used to look forward to plane rides and fancy trips, now I think to myself, "You want me to sit on a plane for how long?" and "I was just on that island last week, I don't want to go back now."

However, the return has been far greater for me. I have been able to do things that I never would have been able to otherwise. I mean traveling, meeting famous people, and being able to buy things of course. There's more though. I have been able to help my parents do things I could have not done on a smaller "salary." I have been forced to learn manners that I would probably not have ever had to use if I didn't escort.

The biggest cost to me though is that I have a hard time expressing what I really feel. I tailor everything to what I think people want to hear and it pays off over and over. To further complicate things, my close friends know that, so the absolute biggest challenge is now to convince people when I am seriously being serious and when I am telling them what I think they want to hear. It's sick.

Angel: Can you give me an example of someone who probably shouldn't pursue escorting as a career option?

Brandon: Escorting should be a "side dish." I wish I would have kept a "real" job for more time when I was escorting. I really did lose touch with reality. I mean, why should I pay attention to things when I you mean, "How do you get past what most people think about being a hooker?"

Angel: Sure. Sounds good to me.

Brandon: Being an escort and being a hooker are not the same. I say it in jest. Escorts are paid for their time.

Quite frankly, my dear, it's damn near impossible to get over that. I stopped trying and I just deal with it and laugh all the way to the next place I want to go have fun.

I sing the praises of escorting because when you manage it the right way, there are opportunities that would amaze just about anyone.

Angel: One of the things that has helped you out a lot in your personal career is your website, PartyWithBrandon.com. Do you think it is important for an escort to have a strong web presence?

Brandon: If you want to get new business, yes. Word of mouth among high profile clients is priceless, but my website was the biggest way that I was able to share what I do with other people.

Angel: What are some online resources that young men can peruse if they are seriously interested in pursuing escorting as a career choice?

Find out Brandon's answer to this and read the rest of his interview with Angel by visiting our website:

Brandon and Angel: Escorting

don't have to? ...and the more escorting I did, the more ways I found to get out of things. People want to help you when you escort more often than not. I think a far greater percentage of the people I spent time with turned out to be paid "relationships" rather than a "WHAM-BAM-THANK YOU MA'AM" type of thing.

Angel: Now, middle America has this Puritanical view when it comes to male escorts. Many people think that they are just drug-addled hustlers looking for their next fix. As someone who is NOT an escort, but the majority of my friends are, I can honestly say that by and large the exact opposite of that is true. How difficult is it to overcome a negative social stigma in regards to escorting?

Brandon: Can I get a translator? It sounds to me like

◀ Safer Sexxx in the House of Sinz

Ricky Sinz's career skyrocketed in 2007. His first work in adult films was in the twink genre, where he was known as "The Twink Destroyer." He then switched to straight films and began calling himself "The Hammer." But, when he hooked up with Raging Stallion Studios, where he is now an exclusive, magic happened: the perfect symbiosis of a model with a special look and attitude and a studio that knew how to market him.

Sinz's tattoos made him a shoo-in for Ink Storm, Raging Stallion's tattoo fetish film, and his years as a soldier in Iraq made him the perfect Drill Sergeant to train a platoon of soldiers in Grunts.

But Ricky is still a guy making a living in gay films, so he is outspoken about knowing how to protect yourself. One page of his website, "Safer Sexxx," is devoted to sharing that knowledge with his fans.

Besides including standard condom info and a list of sexual activities ranked from highest risk to lowest, Ricky's manifesto includes risk management information about more extreme stuff: S&M; fisting and ass play; bondage; breath control; cock & ball torture; electricity and more. A list of resources is included.

Sinz, who has a Master's Degree in Marketing, shares more about himself on his blog, rickysinz.wordpress.com. His Safer Sexxx page is located at www.rickysinzxxx.com/safe.htm.

JOHNNY CASTLE

by Gio

IN JUST A LITTLE OVER TWO years, Johnny Castle has become one of the most recognized faces in the adult industry. Recognized for his work in both gay and straight films and his many magazine layouts for Playgirl, Men Magazine, Torso and many more he is one of only a handful of men who have achieved success in both genres of the porn industry. I had the opportunity to sit down and speak with Castle shortly after he was named MEN Magazines Man of the Year for 2007.

When asked what it meant to be named the Man of the Year, Castle said, "Being named the Man of the Year mainly means that all my hard work at the gym and dedication to taking care of myself has paid off for me, and I am truly appreciative of all my fans out there. I also want to thank everyone who voted for me." His dedication to his physique and overall look is something that he takes very seriously. "I go to the gym every day and sometimes twice a day. I combine that with playing sports and healthy eating habits. I travel a lot these days, and the first place I check out in each new city I go to is the gym. Maintaining my body and looks is pretty much my full time job, so I dedicate a lot of effort to keeping myself in the best shape possible." It is that dedication that has paved the way to a very successful career in the adult industry as one of today's most sought after male models. When asked what he considers his best physical feature he laughs and says "I guess everyone tells me I have a great ass, so I would say that is probably my best feature. But, I also get a lot of self promotion and is about to launch his own website at www.JohnnyCastleXXX.com.

He also credits the launch of his career to the amazingly talented Chi Chi LaRue. "I was doing some local stuff up in New Jersey, and if it was not for Chi Chi LaRue bringing me out to California, I do compliments on my abs too."

Do not let his "Jersey Boy" good looks fool you into thinking he is just another pretty face either. "I was finishing up Grad-School and working full time when one night I was bored and decided to post some of my provocative photos up on the web. Shortly after that I had a few takers and one thing led to another and I started taking my clothes off for the camera, and that led to doing more stuff. Now here I am." There is no doubt that his education and smarts have helped Johnny take control of his career in the adult industry. No stranger to the internet, he has masterfully used this medium for not think that all of this work would have come to me. Her bringing me onto her set and talking good things about me to others in the industry gave me the platform to achieve the success I have today. Chi Chi, if you are reading this... I Love You!" Castle is no stranger to gay audiences and indicated that "when I first started out I did a lot of straight films and I did a couple solo videos. It became apparent quickly which audience appreciated my work the most and I truly have no problem exposing my body for both audiences, so for me it has been fun and I love my gay fan base." To date, he has only appeared in gay films doing solo work and has no plans on doing anything more hardcore in the near future.

Currently in a relationship with his girlfriend for a little over a year and a half, Castle has decided he will no longer appear in straight films out of respect to his relationship. His current focus is on building his website and producing his own content. "I am very excited about the site. It will contain exclusive videos shot and produced by me and will also feature some new talent as well. I am pretty good at recruiting new talent so it will feature them up close and personal for my fans. I will also have a blog on the site where fans can communicate with to put a label on that. As long as you are not hurting anybody, you should be free to explore all sides of your sexuality."

Aside from his work in film and print, Castle is now making live appearances throughout the USA. In the beginning, he was reluctant about getting up on stage. "I was very skeptical about getting up on stage and performing because I am really not a dancer. But, I really enjoy getting out and meeting my fans. It is very flattering to hear someone tell me that they traveled from far away to see me perform live. Even though I love doing the videos, I actually think I am enjoying the dancing more me. I love getting and responding to my fan email as well."

Many people seem to be hung up on categorizing people as being gay, straight or bi-sexual. Having interviewed many people in this industry, I am beginning to believe that most people have varying degrees of sexuality and those degrees determine the extent to which they choose to explore their same sex attractions. Castle weighed in on this subject as well. "Being in this industry, you get to meet a lot of different people who are into many different kinds of sexual things. Some people like to place labels on people and, for me, I really do not put a label on people when it comes to sex. There is a lot more out there than just being straight or gay in my opinion. I do not like now than I did doing the videos to be honest. It is a great combination for now." Castle is currently represented by David Forest of Forest Entertainment for his live appearances and is part of the Forest Meet the Stars Program. When asked about his work as a male escort, Castle preferred not to comment.

Completely open to his family about his work in the porn industry, Castle said "My biggest concern was my mother and whether or not she would accept me doing this type of work."

Our interview with Johnny Castle is far from over. Find out more about Johnny's relationship with his family and his work with Flesh-Jack by reading the rest of this article online. We also have some great new XXX photos of Johnny. JustUsBoys/mag/71

FPG ENTERTAINMENT is a relative newcomer to the Adult Industry with three full films released on DVD. The first, PUNKS, and the second, TOPDAWGS, have already gained positive reviews by industry critics and the studio recently picked up two nominations as GLBT Studio of the Year and for GLBT Feature Movie of the Year (TOPDAWGS) at the 2008 XBIZ Awards. Their third film, BETRAYED, releases in March of 2008. Do not let their small library fool you though, FPG has big plans in the near future and has quite a few projects currently in the works. Quality and value are the two key factors that have played into the success of this new studio. Headed by Marco Guerra and Cameron Finn, FPG brings a little bit of Hollywood moviemaking magic to each of their productions. Cameron brings a background of moviemaking skills that includes both mainstream Hollywood movies and television while Marco brings the vision and story making magic that combine to deliver a dynamic film product to the consumer. Each movie is heavily scripted with deep story lines. Themes revolve around various types of fighting such as wrestling, boxing, martial arts and more. And yes, each film features some of today's hottest men engaged in steamy hot sex.

"We like to bring our expertise of making real movies to the adult industry. I strongly believe that most porno is boring without a story to tell. As a matter of fact, we create the story first and then we go back to add the sex into that story. Of course the sex scenes have to be hot, but they become much hotter when they fit into the overall story of the film." This approach to film making may seem refreshing in a market that is seemingly flooded with all sex movies, but it harkens back to the early days of porn production. "We want to give the consumer a product that focuses not only on hot safe sex, but also on why the guys are engaging in that hot sex. By doing this, we help the viewer become more engaged and thus they gain a higher sense of arousal from our product" stated Marco Guerra.

"All of our movies have a little edge to them as well. They all feature some type of physical interaction and/or altercation through various types of fighting such as wrestling, boxing and other types of fighting."

I had the opportunity to work on FPG's latest film BETRAYED as the still photographer and I can tell you that this film is not only shot well, but the cast was amazing to work with. The film stars Trey Casteel as the owner of a gym that trains up and coming wrestlers in their quest to become big names. Through a series of bad deals made with a mobster boss, Casteel's character finds himself in danger of bankruptcy and the loss of his gym. Upon hearing the news, his wrestlers rally behind him in an effort to win a title match that will bring enough prize money to save the gym and their jobs as well. The film also stars Joe Strong as the Mob Boss's hit man and Strong delivers a performance worthy of awards. Not only does he pull off the role of the "thug" perfectly, but he also delivers two of the most intense and erotic sex scenes by topping both Trey Casteel and Bigg Pete in two of the most erotically intense scenes in the movie. The film also features Kurt Wild, Luke Riley, Chase Stevens, Enrique and Franky Pintar (in a non-sexual role). All are equally impressive in their individual roles.

From the moment the entire cast and crew gathered for the initial production meeting, we knew that we were part of something great. The cast and crew worked 12-14 hour days to make this movie and everyone gave 110% of themselves. The film was shot at multiple locations throughout Fort Lauderdale and the models each had some heavy dialogue scenes that they performed exceptionally. There were a few challenges along the way such as the Florida rain and humidity, special effect glitches, a few bumps and bruises in the wrestling ring, but through it all everyone came together to make a film that we are all proud of. Veteran filmmaker Mr. Pam was brought on as Director of Photography and her passion and enthusiasm throughout the entire shoot was infectious and made the shoot all the more fun for the cast and crew. The film is edgy, sexy, steamy and aggressive all at the same time.

FPG Entertainment has just re-launched their website (www.fpgentertainment.com) and promises some new and exciting features such as exclusive streaming web content, model galleries, blog and more. "We are going to stay true to our brand and continue to bring masculine hot men to our fans in new and unique ways through our internet site and we will continue to focus on quality film making" stated Marco Guerra.

STAR ON THE RISE:

Kurt Wild

photography by Media Gio

Kurt Wild may be someone you have heard a lot about over the past year. Wild has performed with the industries top producers of Internet and DVD gay porn.

He has been featured in Michael Lucas's GIGOLO, Falcon Studios ENDLESS CRUSH, Buckshot's BROTHERHOOD and Jet Set Men's PROVEN STRAIGHT and can be seen on ChaosMen.com, CorbinFisher.com and CollegeDudes247.com. His latest movie is BETRAYED from FPG

Entertainment and in this film he gets to show off not only his great sexual abilities as a bottom, but also his skills as a wrestler. "I loved the physical interaction and all the acting involved in making this movie. It was a lot of fun bringing two worlds together and I really enjoyed working with the entire cast and crew on this movie." He also completed shooting a movie called CANYON for Titan Men (to be released later this year) in which he does a scene with Dean Flynn and tells me "We both cum twice in this scene!"

Many people are surprised to find out that Kurt Wild is married with children. How does a married straight guy end up doing gay porn? "That is a very good question. I was very nervous when I first started, but that all went away once I realized how making gay porn works to fulfill a fetish for me. I fulfill that fetish by having sex with men on camera and in my personal life I do not seek out that fetish. Yes, I am married with 3 children and everyone in my home town knows about my work and they still love me for who I am. I also do not like people trying to label me as gay, bi or straight. I prefer to say I am sexual." Well this "sexual" being has certainly captured our eyes and we are sure that you will agree he is someone that we look forward to seeing a lot more of.
