◀ MOVIE REVIEW: Basic Plumbing 3

In the real world, plumbers are usually fat, smelly, and overpriced. But, in the porn world plumbers look like Erik Rhodes, have giant cocks, and are determined to give you full service... if you know what I mean. Therein lies the premise of Basic Plumbing 3: hot plumbers give service to equally hot customers or better yet each other. The plot is simple and straight to the point. The beauty lies in the pairings of these actors and Falcon Studios has some of the hottest models around. With commodities like Roman Heart, Trevor Knight, Derek Brodie, and Falcon legend Chase Hunter, Basic Plumbing 3 is bound to deliver.

There are plenty of cute jocks, twinkies and muscle studs in this video, but the real star is the legend that is Chase Hunter. He plows into two of the studio's biggest stars, Erik Rhodes and Roman Heart, giving the film its best scenes. Chase is truly enjoying every inch of Erik's body, sucking his dick down to the base, and eating his ass with abandon. Once the fucking begins, Chase goes for it using all his weight and shoving his cock all the way to the balls up Rhodes' muscle butt. The final scene takes the cake when Roman Heart plays the perfect bitch to Chase's daddy. The two make a perfect pair with pretty muscle boy Roman basically melting with every touch of the grizzled masculine Chase Hunter. When he gets pounded by Chase, all manner of nasty talk spews from Roman's mouth. The two climax in a flurry of cum that will leave your tongue wagging.

Bottom Line:

Falcon always has the hottest boys in the hottest scenes and they come through with this one. Chase Hunter shows that he still has what it takes, dominating some of the industry's hottest new talents in two scorching scenes. Falcon knows their audience enjoys cute young boys and sexy muscle men and they deliver lots of both.

◀ WHAT WE'RE DIGGING: Pinkberry

We here at the JUB offices are absolutely ADDICTED to Pinkberry! Pinkberry is a kind of frozen yogurt (or fro-yo as Julie Cooper from "The OC" would say) shop that is taking California and New York by storm. In fact, expect to wait in line up to 45 minutes at their NYC locations! The chain was brought to national attention when celebrity blogger Perez Hilton mentioned it repeatedly. The premise behind Pinkberry is simple: frozen yogurt with toppings. The frozen yogurt is either plain or a green tea formula. The toppings can be traditional (like granola, almonds, strawberries, or blueberries) or fun (like Cap'n Crunch, Fruity Pebbles, Oreo bits, and carob chips). You customize your own mix. In addition to the frozen yogurt, they also sell smoothies and shaved ice. Pinkberry is attached to a bit of controversy though, as they refuse to list their ingredients (though they do state on their website whether or not popular allergens like dairy or gluten are ingredients). Whatever it is that we're eating, WE LOVE IT! If you can't get to a Pinkberry, similarly-themed shops (like Cactusberry, Snowberry, and Yogurtpia) are also popping up to meet the demand.

Andrew Justice

Lately, there has been one name on the lips of the majority of the gay porn industry. That name is Andrew Justice. This hot and sexy newcomer from Illinois has been making friends and influencing people left and right. In just 8 short months, he has already made 15 movies. Longboard and Rush And Release from Falcon Entertainment, Afterhours by Mustang Studios, H2O and Campus Pizza from Titan, and Proven Straight from Jet Set (reviewed in this issue) are just the titles that are out right now, with 9 others to be released in the coming months.

Andrew with his muscular (but not too muscular) build, massive tool, and brown hair (which goes lighter in the summertime), considers himself to be bisexual. However, he doesn't see himself being in an actual relationship with a man. But, don't look for him to do straight porn anytime soon. He saves that for his girlfriend (sorry boys, he is definitely taken). He prefers to do gay porn as a way to safely explore his homoerotic urges. After all, what better place to experiment than in a clean and safe environment like a movie set! He has always been an exhibitionist, and loves that people like watching him have sex. Although he hasn't quite yet convinced the girlfriend to perform in front of an audience with him. The girlfriend does know all about his line of work, and is doing her best to be supportive, but Andrew concedes that, "It would be very difficult for a girl to be dating a gay porn star!"

Growing up in Illinois, he started going through puberty at 12, and at 14 realized that he was attracted to other boys as well as girls. In fact, all of his first sexual experiences with other guys occurred when he was in the Boy Scouts, with his fellow scouts. He lost his virginity to a boy first, at age 15, and then a year later started having sex with girls. Because his penis was so large growing up, he often felt like an "oddball" compared to other boys, but when he started having sex with girls he learned that having a big dick is a good thing! Go figure.

A completely sexual creature, when asked how often he has sex, he replies, "Daily." When pressed as to how much of that is with boys and how much is with girls, he says, "It depends on if I am working or just enjoying free time." He stated that it was difficult for him to pick a favorite scene partner, but if he absolutely had to, it would be Jorden Michaels (his scene partner in Longboard). He has been very blessed in respect that he has gotten to work with everyone that he has requested to be paired with.

He doesn't really pay too much attention to mainstream celebrities. In fact, he has never even heard of Perez Hilton! However he admits that he is turned on by both Brad Pitt AND Angelina Jolie. "Both are very fucking hot. Yeah, I would do both of them...at the same time!"

Now that he is fully immersed in the gay porn scene, he has gotten to travel to Los Angeles, San Francisco, and Florida to film movies, but of those he admits that Los Angeles is his favorite. He has made a lot of public appearances, like at the Grabby awards in Chicago and the Rentboy.com Pool Parties in Palm Springs (where he was quite scandalous with fellow porn star Christian Owen) and Fort Lauderdale. He lives for his fans, and enjoys interacting with them.

Of all the movies that he has shot so far, 13 of them feature him topping, with him going bottoms up in the other two. (In fact, one of the selling points of the movie Afterhours is that it is Andrew's bottoming debut.) He says, "I am mainly a top, but for some reason people want to see tops bottom. I don't understand that, but oh well." And although he hasn't yet worked with Chi Chi La Rue as a director (but he really wants to!) he has headlined at her nightclub Dirty Deeds in West Hollywood, an experience that he called both "intimidating" and "exhilarating," since he had never go-go danced in public before. In addition to Chi Chi, he also would like to shoot for Buckshot someday. All of that will have to temporarily wait though. Since he has done so many movies in so little time, to prevent overexposure, he will be taking an eight month sabbatical to tour Europe. After that, I'm sure he will be ready to field all offers via his agent Howard at Fabscout Entertainment (who we also interview for this issue!)

◀ MOVIE REVIEW: Dorm Life X: The House Next Door

I'm sure plenty of you are aware of the controversy surrounding Flavavorks and their Miami-based Coco Dorm. Plastered on the nightly news, our favorite mini-thugs at Flavavorks were put under intense media scrutiny. Rather than act like shrinking violets, the Flavavorks team have released Dorm Life X: The House Next Door to reveal what really goes on in the Coco Dorm...as if we didn't know already. It's a whole lot of young boys getting their freak on. But, this entry into the Dorm Life series manages to stand out from the pack. Where previous entries featured mostly twinkly 18-year olds, Dorm Life X mixes things up with muscle boys like Domino, pretty boys like Mr. Saukei, and the straight up powerhouse that is Shorty J. Speaking of Shorty J, his presence dominates this release. This pint-sized freak is a true star, appearing in no less than three scenes. Blessed with an adorable face, a 9-inch cock, and perfectly muscled ass and thighs, Shorty J is proof that good things can come in small packages.

Bottom Line:

The boys might look pretty young but this video is packed with some grown-up fucking. The ball of sexual energy that is Shorty J is the standout here but luckily this video is full of lots of intense fucking, wild orgies, and cute mini-thugs. You'll probably wind up wishing that the Coco Dorm was right next door to you.

◀ MOVIE REVIEW: Casting Couch

Colt's newest feature, Casting Couch, directed by star Roland Dane, centers around a European television show that is going to begin shooting with a controversial American star played by Buckshot Man Brad Patton. The story revolves around the show's producer played by cutie-pie Buckshot Man, Brian Hansen, and the director played by the film's actual director Roland Dane. Every scene in this video offers something new and exciting. The opening four way takes place in the writer's room and finds studs like relentless top Julian Vincenzo fucking hairy hunk Rod Stevens and two other studs silly.

The casting is excellent with top talent from all around the world including Euro studs Rod Stevens, Julian Vincenzo, and Rod Stevens. Full of hot foreigners, sizzling group action, and marathon fuck sessions, the Casting Couch is a real winner.

Bottom Line:

Olympus scores with this international flick, with a cast that features the best stars from around the world, plenty of position changes, and an actual (semi) storyline. The onscreen chemistry and horseplay between Brian Hansen and director Roland Dane seals the deal and makes this movie one to remember.

Marcellas Reynolds

Marcellas Reynolds first graced our television screens in Big Brother 3. With his outspoken personality, he quickly made his mark as one of the most recognized gay reality tv stars. In BB3, he refused to use the golden power of veto that would have taken him to the final four only to be evicted from the house. His luck in BB7 All Stars, didn't improve as he was betrayed by the infamous alliance of "Chilltown." We recently caught up with Marcellas, where he shared his thoughts on this season and how he played the game.

How did you break in to reality television? I was splitting my time between Chicago and NY, modeling and fashion styling. I was really tired of both. One of my closest friends lived on the West Coast and worked in production for Shapiro/Groedner (the producers of Big Brother). After they'd gotten the submissions from the public, the producers ask friends, employees and casting agents if they know of anyone. Nikki asked me. My agents told me not to. I passed. Then I caught my beau cheating on me with a guy from the Real World. And my response to his cheating with reality trash was to become the biggest gay reality star in the world, which I was for like 2 minutes!

Your best friend in the Big Brother house was Amy. Do the two of you still remain friends? One of the great things about All-Stars is it healed many wounds. I wasn't friends with Amy for a while. After All-Stars, it just seemed so stupid to not talk to her. We're back and as strong as ever.

Which of the past house guest have you continued a relationship with? Lisa is one of my closest friends. I love Danielle and talk to her almost everyday. I adore Chiara... talk about someone who was poorly edited. I'm great friends with Erika (BB4) and James from All-Stars. From All-Stars, I still talk to Mike and Will and was out with Diane just last night!

Of all the houseguest which do you feel was the sexiest? Nick from the new season has one of the greatest bodies I've ever seen. Thank goodness I wasn't in there with him! I loved Will Wikle from season 5. I thought he was so cute. Roddy (BB3) was a real man. For me my all-time fave is Justin from BB4. He was tiny with a great body, bubble butt and sparkly eyes. And he had a "cauliflower ear" from wrestling. Sexy!

This season Mike made a move that assured him being put on the block by Dick. Dick said that he was making a stupid move just like you had in your game. What are your thoughts on that? I don't think my move was stupid. And fuck that troll Dick for saying that. I think what I did was one of the kindest, most human things ever seen on a reality show. Here is someone competing for money, yet sacrificing myself for the others around me, in probably the most emotional moment I've ever been in. I'd say it was heroic.

So looking back, do you wish you had used the power of veto? Nope. I wouldn't change a thing. It's hurtful to be called an idiot because I trusted people and showed compassion, but after five years I'm the most famous Big Brother House Guest. I'm the only player who's been referenced season after season. And the only one who has managed to have a rather successful entertainment career. Things work out the way they are supposed to.

How would you of played the game differently in both Big Brother 3 as well as Big Brother All Star? I can't speak to changes. I played the game both times by what I was confronted with. At the end of the day these are just games and (to me) acting gigs. It's a check. They end and I move on to the next set.

Who is playing the game the worst this season? Dick's game is horrid. He's a thug and a bully. On top of that, he's ugly. He lacks charisma. If they hadn't been doing a twist (estranged father/daughter) he would never have made the show. To win Big Brother you have to have charisma in order to make people want to vote for you. He doesn't. If, and that's a huge if, he makes it to the end people will remember how mean, arrogant and aggressive he was to everyone and he'll never win. The House Guests should all be battling to take him to the final 2! Anyone can beat him.

Who is playing the game the best this season? Danielle is playing well under harsh conditions. Dick's choice to be a dick is reflecting poorly on her though. But she can swing that to sympathy if she's savvy. I think Jameka or Jessica could win this. If Jameka stays longer, she may get the producers behind her in an effort to have the first African-American winner. Jessica, though useless, is very well liked. She's not on anyone's radar.

Which season 8 houseguest would you have been the closest to if you were in the house? Danielle and Jameka. I adore a blond, though they end up getting on my nerves and then being my undoing. (See Amy and Janelle...) I also love a sister though they end up getting on my nerves and then being my undoing. (See Danielle...) LOL!

How has being on Big Brother influenced your career? It's a double-edged sword. It's what brought me to L.A. and gave me national exposure. It also hurt me in a lot of ways. A lot to legitimate success. I'm trying desperately to get my name on that list.

What advice could you give to those wanting to be on a reality show? Think long and hard about what you want to achieve in your life both long and short term. If it's just for the experience and the money then go for it. If you think it's going to make you a star then really look at others who have gone this route. Remember you are giving away the rights to your image and with notoriety comes a huge lack of privacy. Five years later and I'm still "Marcellas from Big Brother." It will probably end up on my tombstone!

What current projects are you working on? I am the newest on-air correspondent on Fox's Reality Remix! You can watch my take every week on events in the Big Brother house Wednesdays at 4:30 pm, 7:30 pm & 11:00 pm PT. You can also view it @ www.realityremix.tv. See what I have to say about BB8 and the new cast!

I shot another episode of How Do I Look for the Style Channel. Please check your local listings for my current 2-hour episode! I work for E! and Style Network constantly. You can see me on all their shows from The Look For Less to E! News Daily.

◀ CHARITY FOCUS: Adult Industry Medical

Adult Industry Medical was founded by former pornstar Sharon Mitchell. Wanting to give back to the adult entertainment community, she started the clinic (which has now expanded to two locations) to test porn performers for a litany of STDs, using the most current and thorough technology available. However, this organization is not just for pornstars. The general public can also take advantage of the technically advanced STD tests for a small fee (as opposed to being complimentary, like it is for porn performers). Also, their website has one of the most comprehensive listings of the different types of STDs, as well as symptoms, treatment, and prevention of each.

Although they primarily work within the straight adult industry (which is predominantly condomless, and regular testing is required), AIM also treats gay porn performers who voluntarily wish to be tested, to help keep them disease-free. Those performers can then chose to have their results displayed publicly, or kept confidential, whichever they wish. Also, they provide services such as counseling and opportunities for those looking to leave sex work. So check them out and make a tax-deductible donation right on their main page at www.aim-med.org.

FABSCOUT

We recently met up with Howard Andrew, one of the busiest talent scouts in the industry to find out what new discoveries he has in store for us. He already represents some of the busiest names in porn, but we wanted to know how he has taken what started as a side gig and turned it into the company that it is today.

Could you give us a little history on the origin of FabScout Entertainment? I spent almost 15 Years at Party City, then left to pursue a career in making children's Teddy Bears (yes one of those MALL STORES). Well, I hate kids. I mean after all that, YES I hate kids (both laugh). So, I used to be a customer of the "Then Legendary" Cupids Cabaret, and the club owner asked me to work for him. Having had no "club" experience, and being WELL OVER the teddy bear thing (look, now I AM a teddy bear), I went to work as Manager of Cupids Cabaret in Miami. After being there for a while, a gentleman came in and said he wanted to "hire" one of my dancers for a movie. Well I didn't understand, was very naïve, and then he introduced himself... it was RICK FORD (Dirk Yates for those of you not in the know, of ALL WORLDS VIDEO Fame). So I explained that I had no clue what he meant. He then took 3 days to teach me the business, the RIGHT way to do it, honesty and treating models right. Then I met John Bruno, owner of Massive Studio, who became a good friend. The rest...well, was all downhill, er, uhm...well you get the point.

So did you start off exclusively representing the dancers at Cupid's? Yes. I was repping them and for 3 years kept FabScout PART TIME. It was just a "side gig," then after I left Cupids and went to another club, Elements, FabScout continued and grew.

At which point did you realize that you needed to devote all of your time to your "side gig?" After I was working at the clubs, and the calls started rolling in, and the boys started to come around, I realized I should be doing this full time. So I looked into it (this was after almost a year). A friend and I created a name. FAB-Scout used to be Florida Adult Booking and Scouting, now it is just FabScout. I got my business license, registered, etc... and the rest well... About 1 year ago, we moved into the luxurious new FabScout World Corporate Headquarters in Fort Lauderdale and had a huge release party for the New FabScout Logo (a few offices in a warehouse, don't get excited). I share the offices with cases of JUB Magazines.

We love that! So now you are regarded as one of the top agents in all of gay porn. Before you got into this line of work, were you always a porn fan? I used to watch a lot of porn. Now I can't watch it. I know everyone in all the movies, and what goes on behind the scenes. It took the fun out. I do admit, I like straight porn. It's kinda funny, all the guys

I used to jerk off to, I know them now. It isn't so much fun after you have had to clean up after them (laughs).

Who were some of your favorite porn stars before you got into the biz? (laughs) You really can't pin me down on that one. That's like asking to be in my top 10 on MySpace.

OK, let's take a different approach here. Who haven't you met yet that you would like to? Wow, I think I have met almost everyone, hmmm, I was very happy to meet and work with Eddie Stone, Barrett Long, wow so many...hmmm... Ken Ryker! I would have liked to have met him back when he was doing porn.

Yum! Jason Adonis was always nice to me. Matt Rush is a good friend and a great guy, in fact JUB will have an announcement exclusive to JUB Magazine before we are done!

I can't wait! Now, I personally became aware of you when you signed Eddie Stone. Do

Tell me a little about Riley Burke. We love Riley Burke (www.rileyburke.com)! He came to me about 6 months ago, was a chubby bleach blonde shave smooth twink. We sat and talked for over an hour. He was told, "Natural hair color, body hair, etc., and in just a few months...AMAZING turnaround.

You also have a beautiful boy named Bobby Clark. OK, Bobby was introduced to me by Victor, owner of Boardwalk Bar, and you immediately get lost in his innocence and beauty. He is a great kid...and STRAIGHT. Yes, I said it: STRAIGHT. He even slept in the same bed as Jesse Santana and Josh Klearly, and NEVER DID ANYTHING.

But he is looking to get into gay porn? He will do solo work, for now. You hear me Randy Blue or Sean Cody? "For now..." but I think with the right "motivation" he may change and come to the dark side. (laughs)

Well he certainly is gorgeous, and has that "soap star" look. How about our coverboy Shay Gunz? I met Shay thru a friend while he was looking for female talent. See, he does straight porn, and I saw him and well...uhm...kinda liked his body. He had then agreed to begin to do solo work...

after a bit of coaxing. Again, after some proper motivation, perhaps boys. PERHAPS!

What can we look forward to in the near future from FabScout? Well...We have a ton of new guys (as usual), some exclusive news (Jet Set, Falcon, Raging Stallion), and FabScout Live.... hmm should I give you the scoop, the big surprise?

Yes, please!

Matthew Rush has agreed to work with FabScout Exclusively on all Live Bookings for the next 12 months. I will let you have that scoop.....

Thank you so much for letting the readers of JUB be the first to find this out!!!

Look for FabSocut to promote and partner with Rentboy.com on MANY more Events in the upcoming year (Hustlaball, Rentboy.com 10 year anniversary tour), we have 6 guys in the upcoming Falcon Shoot...many, many more things to come. We will be having FabScout Studios up and running in Fort Lauderdale with 4,500 square feet of Studio/Production space for rent to anyone looking for shooting locations.

BRANDON & ANGEL: FAVORITE THINGS

This wild and crazy pair are back again for yet another issue where they gossip about a few of their favorite things. Follow along as we find out just how much of a freak Brandon is when he tells us what his fetish is.

Brandon: I have so many favorites. I have a favorite time of the day. (which does not include anything before 11:00am.) I have favorite stores like Abercrombie & Fitch. I have favorite foods like cheese-cake and...Angel: Girl, don't get me started on favorite foods. I may be a skinny bitch now, but I am a fat girl at heart and I can talk for days about my favorite foods. Have you ever tried a McGriddle? They're fucking orgasmic.

Brandon: Favorites come in so many forms. I have favorite physical attributes on boys that I can't get enough of like armpits and boys with red cheeks. I love those parts of boys. Angel: I don't have too many physical attributes that I prefer. My preferences are more mental, like sense of humor, kindness, romance, oh and I guess a hot ass can't hurt. Yes I am an ass man. Brandon: Did you say "mental" ...as in hospital? I mean that's hard to see. You can't exactly say, for the hard ones. I do too, but not in the same respect. Angel: Good point. Actually, it seems that when it comes to friends I only like the ones that give me a hard time.

Brandon: I don't watch much TV, but Nip/Tuck is certainly my favorite thing to slow down for and tune into... that show is so twisted. I can't believe how fucked up they get. In season two one of the hot boys had sex with his mother. I was like, "No way!" then in season three we found out that his mother was a man before she went under the knife. I was on the edge of my seat with ena-mour and actually a bit proud that a show would tackle something like that. If you get time, tune in. Watching Nip/Tuck is the one of the only times I would tune out what's going on around me.

Angel: My favorite TV show is The Golden Girls. How gay am I?!

I can't help it. Sophia Petrillo is my idol. "Picture it, Sicily, 1922..." Brandon: Not many people can quote lines from TV shows and know the original air date or the second production assistant's middle name like you. You are amazing like that, you TV trivia junkie. Angel: Well, that's certainly one perspective. Another would be that I have absolutely no life, but I think I like your's better.

Brandon: I have favorite places to visit. I miss being home in New Orleans, so that's one my favorite places to go. You can drink any time of day. In the Big Easy, they don't close bars... they just change the drink special. Angel: All the Disney resorts are of course my favorite (with Tokyo Disneyland probably being top on the list). But, speaking of New Orleans, one of my absolute favorite places is the other Sin City, Las Vegas! But I need to stay away from the keno and slot machines or I will develop a problem faster than you can say Gladys Knight.

Brandon: One of my favorite favorite things is porn. Gawash, I LOVE porn. Angel: Oh, I wouldn't know anything about gay porn. I'm only the editor to the best guide to gay porn on the Web.....lol. Brandon: Congratulations! We are all very proud of you. Back to the porn. I even have it on my cell phone. I am pissed I can't get it on my GPS unit and I love that I can pop in a DVD and pop off a load whenever I want.

Angel: You also have DVD players in the majority of rental cars that you drive, and that is also an excellent place to watch porn. In fact, I think that we watched both Boot Boy and The Blond Leading The Blond (a personal favorite) on the way to San Francisco. Brandon: When I am online I like to park my prying eyes on sites like DudesOffCampus. My favorites folder on my browser is filled with sites that feature uncut cocks, pretty boys, and boys pissing. Angel: Yeah...I'm not so into that. I think that I prefer sites that are a little more creative and artistic, like luxporn.com

Brandon: I have some "not" so favorites too. I don't like messy space around me. The boy that I live with in Hollywood is a bit messy. Wait, I think I am supposed to say "creative clutter" if I am politically correct, but why start now right? Angel: Well, that's one perspective. "I live with a pig" would be a different one, but I think once again, I like yours better.

Brandon: I feel like that lady on the movie where the hills are alive and she sings about, "A few of my favorite things." You know what I am talking about right? You know, the one where she looks like she took the curtains off the wall and made a dress and whooped the VonTrapp family-into shape. Angel: Oh yes, I know that movie, "The hills are alive..." That was from "Moulin Rouge!" right? Yes, that's one of my personal favorites too! Oh wait, that's not the movie you were talking about? Oops. My bad.

Brandon: At work, I am not supposed to have favorites. When I worked in hotels, there was generally one or two staff members who I would let get away with a little more because of his or her performance. I mean, If I had favorites, that would be the way it would be. Nowadays, we have a few escorts and porn stars on the site who I would consider my favorites. They brighten my day when I come across their photos online doing routine work with the ads. Now, when I "cum" across their photos it's a little different, but it's still a favorite huh?

Angel: I have favorite webmasters and club promoters that I enjoy working with as well. Usually though, that is based on friendliness, professionalism, and competency as opposed to being cute or hot. "Please." and "Thank you." go a very long way with me. Brandon: What was that C word you said? Competency? What's that? I wouldn't know. Angel: That's not what I read on the bathroom wall. Your reputation precedes you. Brandon: *gets on the phone with office security*

Brandon: Partying is part of my job. Parts of my job at Rentboy.com planning parties tickle me more than others and I would consider my favorite part of what I do. I always look forward to choosing performers. Believe it or not, we dynamically choose performers who draw out the interaction with crowds. It's not just looks and it's not just personality we headline an event with. The combination of those things and several others make selecting event headliners much more of a favorite part of the planning process.

Angel: Interviewing people, whether they be involved in porn or not, is definitely the favorite part of my job. I just love talking to people and getting to know them better. Making them laugh with my cheeky sense of humor always seems to help too.

Brandon: Talking to people? I don't even like answering my phone. Can I officially write to the Department of Favorites at the White House and get that taken off my list of favorites? I know the caller could be calling with an offer that involves some of my favorite things I put in my pocket. Can you guess what that is? It's not my keys. It's cash. It's still so hard to press that TALK button. Your's is always on huh? You don't shut up.

Angel: Then I guess it's a good thing that I have so many outlets for my outspokenness isn't it?? ...bitch. Just kidding, you know I love you about as much as I love my luggage.

Brandon: Luggage? You mean baggage? You have a lot of both my dear. ...in my line of work as much as I travel, loving your luggage is a good thing. I am around my luggage more than I am my boyfriend.

Blogs we love

Branson's Bloggings

bransonsbloggings.blogspot.com

Some joker out there in cyberland had the bright idea to pretend to be the love child of gay pornstar/escort (and JUB columnist) Brandon Baker and gossip columnist Jason Sechrest, with his name being the combination of BRANDON and JASON. The blog is actually incredibly witty and keeps readers wondering who he really is.

Jason's Room

jasonsroom.typepad.com

With all of the different bloggers in West Hollywood consumed with celebrity and parties and name-dropping at a dizzying speed, Jason's Room is a welcome respite from that. He is a normal, attractive gay from the Midwest who waxes enthusiastic about things like summer blockbuster movies, American Idol, and *gasp* his family. Very cute and very sweet (both the blog and Jason).

Stylize This!

stylizethis.blogspot.com

"Fuckin' Travis" is the roommate to gay pornstar/blogger Kyle Foxxx and his blog is a mélange of stylish ingredients, ranging from architecture (which, if it is REALLY good he calls "archi-porn"), fashion collections, and of course, the requisite half-naked (or sometimes even fully naked) men. Very sleek and very sophisticated.

Brent Corrigan, Inc.

www.brentcorriganinc.com

The irrepressible twink you either love or love to hate is back with a brand-new website. Apparently not as censored as his previous site, Brent now blogs freely about a variety of topics.

Steel Curtain movie review

Pitbull Productions, the purveyors of Thug Porn, return with possibly one of their hottest videos to date. Like most of the videos from this studio, Steel Curtain doesn't have much in the way of a plot, or even theme for that matter. It's just lots of good plain ole thug fucking starring the always adorable Tiger Tyson. But what sets Steel Curtain apart is that Tiger shares top billing with one of the industry's most beautiful men of color, the chocolate skinned muscle boy, Jason Tiya. While the video features six scenes, the truth is, the Tiger-Jason match up is the main draw. Needless to say, it doesn't disappoint.

The legendary pairing begins with a frank conversation between Tiger and Jason on how they each got into the industry. Eventually, Tiger convinces Jason into bottoming for him. The two are obviously attracted to each other with Tiger playfully touching Jason and flashing him charming grins. It's a rare treat to see the well-hung Tiya being dominated by the cocky Tiger, who aggressively feels up his plump ass. Jason seems a bit star-struck at the chance to be fucked by the superstar Tyson, doing everything he says with a smile on his face. The chemistry is intense as Tiger first fingers then shoves his cock into Jason's tight behind. The two complement each other perfectly with Jason's darker muscled body resting beautifully underneath Tiger's toned caramel physique. The often-reserved Jason truly comes into his own as a bottom, showcasing the full power of his considerable beauty as he is plowed relentlessly. He stares right into the lens in pure ecstasy, moaning and groaning as if his life depended on it. Ironically, by the time Tiger comes, it appears he is the one who has been turned out, understandably in awe of the hot piece of ass he just had.

Bottom Line:

Jason Tiya bottoms for Tiger Tyson! Need we say more? Steel Curtain manages to become an instant classic thanks to this legendary pairing. In fact, the scene single handedly reinvigorates Tiger Tyson's career. The man is a force to be reckoned with when given the right inspiration, it seems. Jason Tiya also reinvents himself as a muscle bottom that enjoys thugs, opening up his career to endless possibilities. One viewing of this video will have your cock hard as steel!

STAR ON THE RISE: PAUL VALERY

Bel Ami is a studio that isn't exactly known for its "bad boys." Sweet-faced cherubs with Aberzombie bodies is a little more their style. However, even though he still looks like a choirboy compared to real porn bad boys (like Tober Brandt and Dak Ramsey), he definitely has a glint of mischief in his eye and also sets him apart from the other Bel Ami boys. Check him out in Bel Ami's Graffiti, Rebel (where he is the cover model), and Red Hot Chili Sex. See more of Paul at JustUsBoys.com/mag/29

Jak Attack

Jak is based out of Los Angeles and he mostly focuses on tantric massage. He is muscular and masculine and has a rockin' bod! With an easy-going and casual attitude, it's easy to see why he is so popular. Check out his site to see his contact information and rates.

ESCORTS

Later Slater

Kevin Slater is a hung and passionate top based out of New York City. And.. when we say hung, we're talking a massive 9 inch cut too! His site has a nice gallery and a frequently asked question section, as well as contact and rate information.

Kacorot

Kacorot is a beautiful African-American escort who is based out of Miami. His website also features other escorts as well, specializing in men of color. If you are in Southern Florida and looking for hot fun under the sun, be sure to check him out.

Mike On Top

Mike is a stunning blond escort with piercing blue eyes and large cock. He's got both work-friendly and XXX galleries on his site that are definitely worth perusing. He is based out of Atlanta, but loves to travel both domestically and internationally.

Check out all these sites at JustUsBoys.com/directory

Robert Van Damme

Robert Van Damme is a luscious European stud that has made tons of movies (mostly for Hot House, although he just recently wrapped production on Blue Blake's latest film). As hot as the site is, it's almost exclusively for its paying members. The only thing that is free is his "News And Events" section, which is frequently updated.

PORN STARS

Johnny Hazzard

As if being one of the top stars of Rascal Video, spokesmodel for Rufskin underwear, dance music recording artist, runway model, clothing designer, and blogger weren't enough, our little Johnny has FINALLY launched his pay site and let me tell you, fans of Johnny will NOT be disappointed.

Dean Phoenix

If you love this stunningly beautiful man (who has starred in movies like Buckeroos and Leatherbound for Buckshot) then get a membership to this site, where you can drool over his photos and movies while waiting for his next personal appearance.

Michael Lucas

OK so technically, this website is for Michael Lucas's studio, but it's tough to separate the two right? The man is synonymous with his work. His site is a pornucopia of hot East Coast guys and his blog is a daily must-read.

Movie Review

As sites like Sean Cody, Corbin Fisher, Randy Blue, and Broke Straight Boys will attest, there are lots of gay guys out there who harbor the fantasy of bagging a hetero. Jet Set decided to take this concept one step further and make a movie all about guys who fuck other guys...

but aren't gay. After the boys play basketball in the sun, they play a game of poker and come to the conclusion that fucking another guy's ass doesn't make you gay. The boys in this flick are HOT. Jet Set Exclusives Zack Rockwood and Nickolay Petrov are joined by such beauties as Andrew Justice (see the interview with Andrew in this issue), Jorden Michaels, Christian Owen, Kurt Wild, T.J. Young, and Hans Ebson. (The only disappointment I had was that Jet Set Exclusive Sebastian Young only has a non-sexual cameo. That boy is SMOKIN'!) Director Chris Steele seems to outdo himself with every film that he makes, and this one is no exception.

BOTTOM LINE: After a period of dormancy, Jet Set is back and better than ever. "Proven Straight" is a great movie, but an even better indication of the great things that will be coming out of this studio. Each scene is so hot, this will be a movie that you watch over and over again.

JustUsBoys v3.0

Summer is winding down and while all you've been having fun in the sun, your hardworking staff here at JustUsBoys has been at the grindstone working on version 3.0 of our website. Actually, this monumental task started in November of last year. It's hard to believe that it's been in progress for nine whole months, but we have been meticulous with every pixel and click and we hope that our efforts are immediately evident to everyone who stops by for a look.

We may have started small, but there's no denying that the current JustUsBoys.com website is huge. There are well over 100,000 dynamic pages on the site when you take the forums into account, and that made finding what you were looking for a bit of a challenge with the old site design. When you think about it, JUB is really recreated every day by our more than 125,000 users. Members are constantly updating their personal blogs and homepages, posting new topics in the forums, and commenting on the galleries and other content we post. The site you wake up to in the morning definitely isn't the same site that's there by the time you go to bed. So with that kind of constant change in mind, we set out to create a better JustUsBoys.com. The change happens from your very first click to the homepage...

The new homepage for JustUsBoys.com is now your dashboard.

All the latest news and updates from every part of the site or pulled into the homepage and updated minute by minute. Now you can see the newest threads started on the message boards, the latest blog entries from fellow JUBbers, the most commented eye candy galleries, the most interesting news, and dozens of other happenings all synthesized in an easy to read format. You really can go to this one page and get a good feel for what's happening all over JUB at that moment. We also made it easier to find your way around by adding a better menu system, a site map, and new categories for our eye candy gallery section.

Version 3.0 isn't all about design changes though. We've gone further than that by adding some entirely new sections. First, you'll definitely want to check out our new "Articles" section. The same writers who contribute to this magazine are working on additional stories for us each week and we're posting these stories, interviews, and gossip in this new section. We are tackling interviews with your favorite porn stars and even digging into socially conscious issues important to our community like the prevalent use of crystal meth among gay men. If you love reading the print magazine you'll really appreciate this new section. Speaking of the magazine, we have merged our old JUBMag.com url with JustUsBoys.com. There is a bright and shiny new "Magazine" button on the upper menu that will take you to our new magazine homepage, right on JustUsBoys.com.

The biggest changes in version 3.0 really can't be seen with the eye, but go a long way toward making your JUB experience much more enjoyable. The old site was built on out-of-the-box software like Moveable Type and relied on third parties to provide a lot of functionality. In version 3.0, the entire frontend of the site was created from scratch and now runs on completely custom programming that we created in house. In addition, we've made use of many new Web 2.0 technologies to keep the site updated and fast. We're using some pretty advanced caching, including heavy use of technologies like memcached, which are used on high traffic sites like Wikipedia and Live Journal. We also expanded the width of the site to match the growing number of users who have high resolution displays, and we incorporated other technologies to improve your experience, such as Ajax and Thickbox. All of that might seem like Greek to many of you, but the bottom line is the site is better, faster, and far more enjoyable than ever before!

Stop by JustUsBoys.com and check out our reinvention. We think you'll find it hot, sexy, and unlike any other site on the web.

PlayGirl.com

CAMPUS HUNKS

Every year, in November, our friends at PlayGirl.com bring us the Campus Hunks issue. For the first time ever, PlayGirl has given us an exclusive sneak peek of the campus hotties that will appear in their November issue. ## Scott Tanner

Age: 31

Height: 5'11 Weight: 185 lbs

Damian Ross

Age: 31

Height: 5'11 Weight: 185 lbs

Day Job: Uncle Sam (Don't Ask, Don't Tell)

How long have the two of you been together?

Scott: We've been together almost a year.

How did you meet? Scott: We met on the set of a film we were shooting for Chi Chi, in Los Angeles. My hotel room was directly above his, it was my birthday and he took me out for dinner and then it just so happened that a few days later we were both flying back to Miami within an hour of each other.

Was it love at first sight? Scott: It was definitely lust at first site and then the love quickly followed.

What was the first thing that you each noticed about the other? Scott: I noticed his ass on the set, he was in a room having his still photos taken and I was taking a break from shooting a scene. I wandered past the room and there it was, up in the air...beautiful!! Damian: I saw him before he saw me and I first noticed how well he carried himself and all that sexy blond hair everywhere. He is the first "white-boy" I have ever been with.

What is a typical day like for the two of you as a couple? Scott: We wake up, I put on my shirt and tie, he puts on his uniform and we have coffee, then head to work. After work we go to the gym, then home to make dinner, kill a bottle of wine and watch appointment television. We live a pretty simple and "normal" lifestyle. Being in Key West, we like to spend our days off out on the water, snorkeling, boating, kayaking, etc...other than that, we are pretty boring.

How long have you each worked in the adult industry? Scott: I started in 2001 and then took a break for a couple years. Damian: I just started last year.

What challenges have you had to deal with while working in the adult industry and being

Are the two of you in an open or closed relationship? Scott: We are in a closed relationship.

What is the most romantic time the two of you have had? Damian: The first night that we spent together. It was Scott's birthday and we went to dinner at a great restaurant in Hollywood and then spent the night holding each other and watching tv.

to be ignored and I like to talk through things... I talk a lot as it is. Damian: He talks too much sometimes!!...especially when we are watching tv.

What is your favorite thing about one another? Scott: His smile and his apparent love for me...oh yeah, and his sweet ass!! Damian: How much he loves me, his humor and his big cock, and he can cook better than anyone I know.

in a relationship? Scott: I think the most challenging thing is having to be apart when one of us is travelling...at least for me that's the hardest part. Damian: I agree.

What is the one thing about each other that can sometimes be annoying? Scott: When he is angry or upset he gets quiet and won't talk and acts like he can't hear anything that I'm saying to him. I hate

What do you feel is the key to a successful relationship? Scott: Communication, communication, communication... and trust!

FLASHBACK:

Billy Brandt

Billy Brandt burst onto the scene as a Falcon Exclusive back in 1999, his first scene being opposite Dylan Reece in Absolute Arid, directed by John Rutherford (who now helms Colt). With a gorgeous face and a stunning body, not to mention loads of sexual charisma, Billy became a huge star, gracing the covers of Freshmen, Unzipped, and Playgirl magazines. In 2001, Billy left Falcon to work with Pacific Sun. In his last public appearance in 2006, Billy said that he was retiring from gay porn to enter the military. We here at JUB wish Billy all the best. This picture is from the film No Way Out, where he bottomed onscreen for the first time for porn pup Jeremy Jordan. # THE LAST WORD

by Angel Benton

First and foremost I want to say "Thank you so much," for checking out JustUsBoys.com. This is my first issue as Editor, and while I am extremely proud of the work that I have done thus far, expect for things to only get better and better!

When I was given this job, it was expected that I write one of those "A Letter From The Editor" pages. 98 percent of the time, that particular page is one of the first few of each issue. Well, I actually really liked our intro page as is, and my motto around here is, "If it ain't broke, don't fix it." But still, my own signature stamp was requested. I thought long and hard, and then it hit me like a bolt of lightning.

Ask anyone who knows me, and they will tell you that, whether it be arguments, instant messenger conversations, blog comments, what have you, I ALWAYS tend to have the last word, so why should my magazine be different? So there you have it folks. Each issue I will be giving you "The Last Word." (If you enjoy my column that I have been writing with my friend Brandon Baker, rest assured, it isn't going anywhere.)

But this is just the beginning. Check out our website (www.justusboys.com) which is being revamped, including our blog. I know that change can be a scary thing, but we don't think of it that way. They aren't changes so much as they are improvements. In addition to the hot eye candy, now we will also have breaking news stories, fun pornstar interviews, and even community interest stories. That's just it. We want our website to be a community, where you can freely discuss any and all issues pertaining to you, our reader. Of course, we're still going to be guiding you to the best gay porn on the Web. That will never change (see motto above).

Putting this issue together has been crazy, but so much fun! As we transition to being a bicoastal organization, expect to see us at events around the country. Don't be afraid to stop by and say "Hello!" Also feel free to comment and let us know how we're doing and what we can do to be the best magazine and website out there. Tell us what (or who) you want to see!
